4 THE CLERK: Calling Civil Action 18-md-2843,
5 In Re Facebook.

6 Go ahead and start.

7 THE COURT: All right. Do we need appearances or just
8 when they speak, Ms. Means?

9 THE CLERK: Just when they speak.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 THE CLERK: It's a small enough group. Not like 12 yesterday.

13 THE COURT: Good morning.

14 Thanks for your statement. And I know the last few times
15 I've just sort of continued it, but I hadn't seen you in a
16 while and so I wanted to check in and just see if there is 17 anything I can do or sort of get an update.

18 I know depositions, I believe, are able to open
19 next month.

20 And so, that's all. I just wanted to check in.

21 It looks like things are working well with the special
22 master, but if anyone wants to give me an update.

23 Otherwise, I thought maybe all of you hadn't been on a
24 Zoom together either and maybe you wanted to see each other.

25 (Laughter.)

1 MS. STEIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 MR. LOESER: Well, we have seen each other a few times.

3 So we still remember each other's names, and Zoom helps with 4 that too.

5 Your Honor, the process is working I think as you
6 intended. We have Special Master Garrie, who I can see has now
7 joined us. We still have discovery mediation sessions with 8 Judge Andler as well. And the settlement mediation process has 9 commenced as well with Judge Gandhi.

10 So we have a lot of different people who have a "judge" or 11 a "special master" title involved in this case, and we're
12 hoping that everyone's time can be used well and effectively
13 and we can continue to move things along.

14 Obviously, plaintiffs have -- there's a lot of discovery
15 disputes that are now working through the process. We hope
16 that this, what's set up, will accelerate resolution of that.

17 We have a case calendar with some tight deadlines, and so
18 I think the parties are working hard to make sure that those 19 are complied with.

20 THE COURT: Great.

21 MS. STEIN: Yes, Your Honor. I would just echo what 22 Mr. Loeser said. We have, you know, a lot in process with 23 Special Master Garrie and Judge Andler. There are obviously 24 disputes going both ways that we're working through. And,
25 you know, I think from our perspective, we're working hard to make sure that, you know, all the deadlines are met.

THE COURT: All right. Great.

Well, I didn't want you to think I'm not here if you need me. I am.

Why don't we just go ahead and set something again. And if there's no reason, I'll go ahead and continue it. But I just want you to know that I haven't completely abandoned you.

So should we set something maybe, like, the week before Thanksgiving? That's about a month. Thanksgiving is the 25th. How about the 16th at 9:00 a.m. by video?

MS. DAVIS: That works here.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

MS. STEIN: That's fine, Your Honor. Thank you.

THE COURT: Great. All right. It was nice to see you.

MR. LOESER: Thank you, Your Honor.

(Proceedings adjourned at 9:05 a.m.)
